'Drive Week' Is Scheduled For Community Concerts

"Drive Week" was the major point of emphasis at the annual kick-off dinner of the Foothill Community Concert Association, held Monday evening at Eaton's Restaurant in Arcadia.

Ben Course, president, officially opened the one-week campaign which will run through Saturday. Headquarters at the Arcadia Music Mart and at Claude Chess TV Store are open from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. and all citizens in Arcadia, Monrovia, Sierra Madre and Duarte are invited to join for the coming concert series.

Course voiced confidence that enrollment of new members and renewal of all present members will achieve the goal of 1,800. Coming programs were outlined to the 100 workers and offi-

Admittance to these concerts is by membership and tickets may be purchased at this time only. Adult season tickets are $7 and student tickets, $3.50.

Chester Van Hellen, general drive chairman, further pointed out that the concert series is one of the great cultural accomplishments in this area and told the workers, "you can't do too much on it."

which have appeared here during the 19 years of the local group's existence.

Other benefits stressed were the reciprocity list which entitles the membership holder to visit neighboring communities for concerts, and the bonus concert for joining which will feature Donald Gramm, scheduled to appear here on April 10.

A new division to enlist music teachers in the area was announced and another suggestion made was to approach patrons who would like to donate student tickets for use in local schools. Seated at the head table with
